TALK OF THE TOWN

Spaulding high school's glee club and the school orchestra, together with children of the grades in folk songs and dances, played to a capacity house again Saturday evening, and the warm reception given the pupils on the occasion of their first appearance Friday was repeated. The program was identical with that used Friday evening, but the participants had the advantage of one public appearance and the various numbers lost nothing by the repetition. Proceeds of the two concerts are to be devoted to the betterment of conditions of music in the public schools of Barre.

St. Andrew's club held an enjoyable banquet in its rooms in the A. Tomasi block Friday evening, the occasion serving to assemble nearly every member of the organization. Several guests were also present and an excellent banquet was served, Petrie & McMillan, who recently purchased Jack's lunch on Depot square, catering for the affair. After dinner, there was a brief program of speaking in the course of which responses were made by officers of the club and guests. Members contributed to a pleasurable program of vocal and instrumental numbers and it was well toward midnight before the first evening party of 1916 ended.

The condition of Mrs. Alexander McDonald of Short street, who has been seriously ill at the City hospital, was reported to be more comfortable to-day.

Do you wear a front-lace corset? So many women who demand comfort as the prime requisite in a corset wear a P. N., they are so easy to put on. Mrs. W. F. Shepard.

The Kenyon store will open to-night at 7 o'clock. The balance of the Kenyon stock and the consigned stock of C. B. Croft will be turned into cash at once. Two, three and four articles will go at price of one. D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency, assignee—adv.

The C. B. Croft jewelry store, which has been closed for the past 10 days, was reopened this morning and truckmen were busy transporting the stock to the Kenyon store in the Currier block. The contents of the Croft store have been assigned to the D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency and, together with the balance of the Kenyon stock, will be closed out.

At the Hedding church this evening at 7:30 an entertainment, consisting of musical selections and readings, will be given by the students and faculty of Montpelier seminary, to which the public is cordially invited. Dr. J. W. Hatch will make a short address. There will be no admission fee, but a free-will offering will be taken to pay the traveling expenses of the entertainers.

The Pavilion Theatre will open to-night under the management of Holman & Denning, with a performance that surely ought to please everyone. Five reels of pictures will be shown, a three-reel feature, entitled "Inheritance," featuring Bryant Washburn and Ruth Stonehouse, and a two-reel comedy, "Perkins' Pep Producer." The vaudeville act is a singing program by Ade & Marjorie, that is one of the best acts of the kind ever seen here—adv.

Universal presents that sprightly pair, Carter De Haven and Flora Parker De Haven in "The College Orphan," a six-reel romantic drama of college life. Football fans will be intensely interested in a genuine football match between two western eleven.

With the De Havens in "The College Orphan," was the Washington state winner in the Universal beauty contest held last summer. At the Bijou to-morrow—adv.

Word has been received from Darius Cobb, the painter, that owing to illness in his family he has been called home and that he will be unable to be present Tuesday evening with his masterpiece, "The Master," to be exhibited in the Presbyterian church. Rev. C. F. Hill Crathern, who has traveled over the continent with Mr. Cobb will be present and will explain the picture fully. There will be no admission, but a silver offering will be made. With such an opportunity to see a famous painting by the Boston artist, it is hoped that there may be a large attendance.

Cold weather with the lowest sub-zero reading of the winter put the quietus on manufacturing operations in the granite belt to-day, although work was not suspended at the quarries. Following a steady fall of snow Saturday night and Sunday morning, the mercury declined rapidly yesterday and early threats of high temperature with a high wind were discounted when the mercury scooted below. This morning one could find people who wouldn't hesitate to guess that sometime in the night a minus 40 registration had been recorded, but as a matter of fact, the temperature was scarcely lower than minus 25 and 28, although a South Barre milkman, around whose lacteal figure hedges a halo of fame as a weather reporter, stated that he saw the bird flitting with -38 in his thermometer. With only two or three exceptions all manufacturing plants were closed.

William Bilodeau, who was called to Graniteville last week by the death of his mother, Mrs. Marceline Bilodeau, was a visitor in the city this forenoon while on his way to Manchester, N. H., where he is proprietor of the Champion bowling alleys. Funeral services for Mrs. Bilodeau were held in St. Sylvester's church at Graniteville this morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Joseph Turcot, the parish priest, officiating. The remains were brought to Barre for interment in the Catholic cemetery on Beekley street. Theodore and Fred Bilodeau of Williamstown were also in Graniteville to attend the obsequies.

News of Sudden Death of E. C. Duval in Hardwick Received.

News of the sudden death of her father, E. C. Duval, in Hardwick at seven o'clock this morning was received by Mrs. David E. Spicer of 33 Main street this forenoon, death being due to heart disease with which he had suffered for sometime. Mr. Duval had been employed during the fall and winter in Rochester, having had charge of construction work at the tale mine and he was visiting his daughter, Mrs. William George. The deceased was born in Plattsburg, N. Y., in October, 1852. He resided in Hardwick for twelve years, being in the employ of the Woodbury Granite company as master mechanic for that period. Later he went to Mt. Airy, S. C., and was employed there for five years, returning to Vermont last summer. He is survived by a brother, Basil Duval of Montgomery; one sister, Miss Delmy Duval of Burlington and by five children, Mrs. Spicer of this city, Mrs. William George of Hardwick, Mrs. William Craig of Waterbury and Miss Bertha Duval of Barre and Fred Duval. His wife died about five years ago in this city. The funeral will be held in Hardwick with burial in the family lot at Greensboro.

Frederic Edwards of the high school faculty returned Saturday from Somerville, Mass., where he went early in the week, called by the death of his father.

George Brooks returned last evening to Burlington to resume his studies at the University of Vermont, after passing a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn B. Brooks.

Mrs. Max Bradway, Miss Maude Moore and Miss Margaret Stone are enjoying a few weeks' vacation from their duties in the office of the National Life Insurance company, and sailed Saturday from New York to the Bermuda islands.

William Corry, C. E. Cookson and wife, and W. H. Phillips and wife, returned this morning from Boston, where they attended the annual convention of the Tenney company, held Saturday evening.

Mrs. Claire Templeton is detained at her home on Elm street by illness.

Henry F. Hall returned to-day to Woodsville, N. H., where he is employed in the offices of the Boston & Maine railroad, after passing the week end with his parents in the city. Harold Keegan of Windsor returned this morning, after visiting his parents Sunday.

Edward McGoff left last evening for his home in Brandon, after a week's visit in the city with his brother, Dr. W. H. McGoff, of College street.

Miss Jennie Devine left this noon for Boston, where she will undergo treatment, being accompanied on the trip by her sister, Mrs. C. P. Pitkin, of Main street.

Willis Drew of New York City, a 1911 graduate of Montpelier high school, returned last evening to his home, after a brief visit in West Berlin with his parents.

Charles Theriault is detained from his duties in the C. H. Shipman store by an attack of the grip.

Miss Blanche Darling left this morning for Lorain, O., where she will make an indefinite stay. Miss Darling has been acting as secretary of the Welfare league for the past few months.

brief stay in Burlington and other places on the west side of the state, in the interest of his granite business.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the firemen's ball, to be held the evening of Feb. 29, in the city hall auditorium for the benefit of the relief fund, met yesterday afternoon and discussed arrangements. A concert will precede the dance and it is possible that in addition to an orchestral concert, some high class entertainers will be engaged. The committee in charge of the affair, the first of its kind to be held in Montpelier since 1911, is composed of Chief W. A. Pattee, chairman; E. O. Gould, Edward Gilbert, Henry Lawson and George Shannon.
